Our pan London trainee-led network will support the conception and coordination of multi-centre research, audit and service evaluation projects to answer relevant clinical paediatric questions.

It will engage all paediatric trainees and offer opportunities to develop leadership, team-working and research skills.

Next steps for Local Leads: FIRE - Febrile Infants Regional Evaluation

We are very excited to have you all on board for our first pan-London project - FIRE - and hope the introductory webinars provided helpful information. Thank you to those that attended the webinars, but for those that missed it or want to re-visit some of the information you can access the webinar online.

The next steps for you as a local lead are:

- Gather your local team - link up with your consultant lead and other interested trainees!
- Make sure you are signed up to our newsletter and the FIRE whatsapp group (QR codes below)
- Complete your Good Clinical Practice certification
- Keep an eye out for the feasibility & scoping survey and the data collection tools

If you have any outstanding questions please feel free to e-mail us or find more information on our website:

Update on London Trust Recruitment:

There has been amazing progress in recruiting trainees across London as local leads! Local leads have been identified in 23 out of 24 London Trusts with paediatric emergency departments. More trainees are always welcome!

Local leads - make sure you have a consultant lead identified at your trust to ensure your trust can participate in FIRE.

UPCOMING PROJECTS

Trainee Research Experience Survey:

We want to find out what areas of research/audit work you find difficult and how we can help you. Extra incentive - any participant will be entered into a raffle for a *prize-winning* meal for 4 at a London restaurant!

As local leads we need your help distributing this survey to trainees at your trust, so keep an eye out for survey updates coming this month!
